

WAR MAY NOT BE AVERTED. BE ADVOCATES English Peace Gaining Ground Steadily.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BLOOMINGTON, Oct. 6.—President Steyn, addressing a command in Market Square on Thursday, congratulated the English on the rapidity with which they had responded to the call. He said the Orange Free State did not intend to make an attack, but that it would defend its cherished rights. The enemy was strong, but if that enemy crossed the border, it would be met with a determined resistance.

In concluding, he exclaimed: "We would be fighting for the independence of our State."

A QUEER SITUATION.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—All reliable intelligence from South Africa points to a continuance of the existing situation for some time, as both sides apparently diffident about commencing an attack, although from the dispatches received it seems as if every movement of a patrol and every cloud of dust made by a herd of cattle were turned into a general advance.

The delay is all for the good, inasmuch as it gives time for further negotiations and a willingness on the part of the British government to continue to utilize diplomacy.

WAR MAY BE AVERTED.

A well-defined conviction is prevalent that the Foreign Office is trying to discover a way out of the impasse which has been created by mistakes and miscalculations, and it is evident that peace advocates and peace counsels are gaining ground. However, Mr. Chamberlain's refusal to settle the matter by him by the petition of fifty-eight members of the House of Commons to the Secretary of State for the Colonies to not yield an inch in the interest of peace.

WILD WAR TALKS.

While the dispute for war evidently increases in Great Britain, dispatches from the Cape of Good Hope, grow more and more wild.

Advices from Pretoria describe the Transvaal army as having been ordered to march on Cape Town, referring to the prospective struggle as a means of settling the republic's "locality of Pretoria." It is also said, according to advices from the same point, that the Boer forces at Volksrust are personally averse to hostilities, but that the Boer organization is already breaking down and that Boer is developing between the artillery, who are regulars, and the Boer commandos.

MISERY OF REFUGEES.

The refugees in Cape Town are having a bad time, the women and children being in a pitiable plight. The government offers to furnish food for some of the distressed has been accepted.

The announcement from Pretoria that the British diplomatic agent, Conyngham, is ill, is taken in some quarters to indicate the possibility of his recall and of further steps in the direction of a peaceful adjustment.

A host of officers, including Prince Christian Victor of Schleswig-Holstein, and a large number of nurses, sailed for the Cape today.

It now appears that Lieutenant Winston Spencer Churchill, son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill, who will accompany General Sir Roberts' expedition, will not go on behalf of the Times, but as the war correspondent of the London Morning Post and the New York World.

SILLY STORY ABOUT VICTORIA.

In connection with the rumor that Queen Victoria is liable to intervene to prevent a war, a curious story is published this morning by the Vienna Establiant, which alleges that the Empress had abdicated in the event of an outbreak of hostilities, declaring that it has this information from an excellent source. The statement unfavorably affected the Vienna bourse.

DEWEY ACCEPTS THE PEOPLE'S GIFT A House Already Built Is to Be Presented to Him at His Own Request.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Admiral Dewey has elected to accept a house in Washington already constructed, instead of having one built for his occupation. In accordance with the invitation of the committee which has had in charge the Dewey home work, he called at the office of Acting Secretary Allen, in the Navy Department, at 10 o'clock today to indicate his preference in the matter of a residence. There were present, besides Mr. Allen, Assistant Secretary Vandervort, Mr. Heath, and Assistant General Counsel.

DEWEY ACCEPTS THE HOME.

The Admiral was officially informed of the purpose of the people of the United States to present him with a home in Washington. He expressed his gratification at the tender, which he immediately accepted. He said that the proposed home, being the gift of a few wealthy men, should not be disposed of to accept it. But he noted that the fund had over 4,000 subscribers, indicating that the home was to be really the gift of the American people, and as such he would accept it with as much pleasure as he had the sword bestowed upon him by Congress. He then said he wished the house to be located in the northwest section of the city, somewhere west of Sixteenth street and not too far north, thus including the neighborhood of his former residence and the club where he had spent a good deal of his leisure time.

First of all, he wanted the house to be quiet, possible, moment, so that he might "go in and hang up his hat at once, as he put it. Of course, that precluded the idea of erecting a house to meet his special needs. He expressed his ideas of the character of the home he desired, and asked that the house be modest enough in appointments and cost to permit of the retention of a sufficient sum of money from the purchase price to defray the expense of furnishing it. The committee listened attentively to all these wishes, and saw no reason why all could not be granted.

LOOKING FOR A HOUSE.

The Admiral is going to New York and will see the yacht on his way to Shelburne, N. Y. He expects to return to Washington in a week or so. Meanwhile, the house committee having invited him to write proposals on the property, will go through the list carefully and hope to be able to present to the Admiral on his return as many as half a dozen available houses from which he may make a personal selection. The fund at the disposal of the committee now amounts to about $20,000, and it is generally expected that this sum may be substantially increased during the time remaining before the purchase.

BAY STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION Nominate Governor and Endorse President M'Kinley.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—The Massachusetts State Republican convention for the nomination of State officers was held today in Music Hall.

The Committee on Credentials reported 1,754 delegates present. Colonel Melvin Adams was elected permanent chairman and he delivered a speech in which he commended the Republican National and State administrations. The Committee on Resolutions reported the platform, which was received with applause and adopted.

The platform opens with felicitations upon the results which have followed the restoration of the Republican party to power in all branches of the Federal government. On the subject of national finances and the currency the platform says:

"Bonds and notes payable in coin must be established by law to be payable in gold and provision made for supply of gold when required. The Republican party unhesitatingly pledged to maintain the existing gold standard, and we look with confidence to the Fifty-sixth Congress for the enactment of measures to so perfect our monetary system that there shall be ample money for the expanding business of the country and to arm and guard the treasury that it can at all times protect the national credit."

The platform urges the opening up of new markets for the manufactured products of the United States; the development of the merchant marine of this country and such improvement of the principal harbors of the United States as shall make them accessible to the largest vessels afloat.

On the subject of trusts the platform says:

"The Republican party of Massachusetts is unqualifiedly opposed to trusts and the capitalization of fictitious and speculative valuations."

ENDORSED M'KINLEY.

The National Administration is endorsed in the following paragraphs:

"We express our confidence in the patriotic ideals of President McKinley and the high qualities of statesmanship with which he has impressed them upon his Administration."

"He has enforced an efficient conduct of affairs in every department of the Government, and he has conducted the diplomatic services so as to win for the United States the respect and admiration of foreign nations."

"The recent war with Spain, which was necessitated by humanity, has been overwhelmingly vindicated by the results so speedily and splendidly attained."

PHILIPPINE PROBLEM.

"We commend the tact, the patience, the skill and the statesmanlike spirit with which the President has approached the perplexing problems arising from the war. Under the treaty with Spain

VETERANS CHEER THE PRESIDENT. Quincy Gives M'Kinley an Enthusiastic Reception.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 6.—Cannons boomed and bands played "Dixie" as President McKinley alighted from the Campana, his private car, at the grounds of the Illinois Soldiers' Home this morning. Fifteen hundred old inmates of the Home cheered enthusiastically as the President alighted from the car and stepped into the arms of the members of the Cabinet. The party, escorted by the long platoons of soldiers, moved to the grounds. The President was first escorted to an improvised platform, from which he bowed in acknowledgment of the veterans' greeting, shaking hands with as many as possible.

The Presidential party was driven from the Soldiers' Home to the city proper. Company F, Fifth Infantry, the naval reserves, and Company F, Eighth Infantry, escorted the party through the business district. The sailors fired a salute of twenty-one guns. Six thousand school children were massed on the east side of the court house, waving flags and singing national airs as the President appeared.

The streets of Quincy were literally packed with people. A street fair in progress, and along the line of march booths and arches had been erected, most of which featured the Stars and Stripes and immense pictures of McKinley and Dewey. The procession went by a circuitous route through the principal business streets of the city until the public square was reached, where the President and members of the Cabinet ascended a platform to review long files of veterans from the Soldiers' Home. Meanwhile a reception was held in honor of Mrs. McKinley in the parlors of the hotel. The party left Quincy at noon. Peoria will be the first stop.

MAACOMB, Ill., Oct. 6.—The President and several members of the Cabinet delivered brief addresses from the reviewing stand at Quincy. The President said: "I thank you, one and all, for this patriotic welcome. It has given me uncommon pleasure to meet this morning at the Soldiers' Home the men of 1861—the veterans who stood in the trenches and behind the guns in that year of great emergency, when the life of the nation hung in the balance. (Applause.)"

"It has given me like pleasure also to meet with the ex-soldiers of the Spanish war from the city of Quincy and the naval militia, representing the patriots of 1898. (Applause.) And it is gratifying to me to learn that you sent from this city one of the ablest young officers who fought with Dewey in Manila bay. This is an era of patriotism, my countrymen. The United States has never lacked in gratitude to its soldiers and its sailors who have fought in its defense. The citizens of the United States have always been ready to pay any cost, the flag and honor of the nation, to take all the responsibilities borne of duty that can never be repaid. Duty unperformed is dishonor, and dishonor brings shame which is heavier to carry than any burden which honor can impose. My fellow citizens, thank me for this more than I can be thanked for as never before. The train from Watsonville was delayed."

SHE WILL NOT NOW BE PROSECUTED Mrs. Barnes Is Free to Marry Edward M'Nevin.

Mrs. Beatrice A. Barnes, who is reported to have married Edward H. McNevin in Reno, Nev., before the decree separating her from James H. Barnes was signed, is now legally free from her former husband.

The decree was signed by Judge Ellis. The custody of the minor child, 19 months old, was awarded to the father, who is an engineer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company.

Barnes and his wife were married about three years ago. While the husband was away Mrs. Barnes kept company with McNevin, who was named co-respondent in the husband's action for divorce. It is not likely that any steps will be taken toward prosecuting Mrs. Barnes or Mrs. McNevin on the charge of bigamy.

Attorney R. B. Myers, who represents Barnes, says the latter will not make any prosecution.

Americans' Day to Win.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—American jockeys rode three horses to victory at Kempton Park today. L. Rehn had the mount on Volcan, which won the race for the Feather plate; Volcan, ridden by Sloan, was second, as was also his mount for the Imperial plate or Democrat. Martin rode St. Ia and Turbula, which won the October plate and the Midwestern plate, respectively. Sloan's mishap prevented him from riding Latheron Wheel for the Richmond plate.

Australians Aggrieved.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BRISBANE, Queensland, Oct. 6.—Great surprise and dissatisfaction are expressed in commercial and political circles here at the news that the British War Office has placed large orders for canned foodstuffs in the United States. As a matter of fact, the Queensland chamber of commerce, a large demand, had prepared increased stocks, which will now possibly be a drug on their hands.

SHE BATTLED WITH FOOTPADS Mrs. J. Cone Has a Wild Experience on the Haywards Road.

A remarkable story of a wild battle on the Haywards road has been told by Constable Gallett of San Leandro.

Mrs. J. Cone, the wife of a well-known photographer, is the heroine of the story. She has called upon the officers to assist her in running down a bold footpad who assaulted her on the Haywards road last evening.

Constable Gallett has been working hard on the case, but cannot get any clue to the woman's assailant.

Mrs. Cone tells a very dramatic story. She says that about the middle of the night she left Haywards on her wheel for the purpose of riding to Mission San Jose, whither she was going to join her husband. She says that when about three miles out of Haywards a tall man jumped out from behind a tree and grabbed her.

She realized at once her danger and made a desperate effort to free herself from the clutches of the footpad, who by this time had grabbed her by the throat and was slowly choking the life out of her.

Mrs. Cone felt that a desperate resistance had to be made in order to save her life. She made one mighty effort to free herself from the iron grip of her assailant and in the struggle that ensued both the man and woman tripped on the bicycle and fell heavily to the ground.

The woman going that she was free from the footpad's grip grabbed a stone from the road and dealt her assailant a terrific blow between the eyes.

The blow knocked the fellow unconscious.

Mrs. Cone secured her wheel and hurried away from the scene. She did not stop at Haywards, but hurried through to San Leandro, where she had friends. Arriving at San Leandro, she at once placed the facts before Constable Gallett and requested that the officer try and arrest her assailant.

The police were very well known in the interior of the county. They have a gallery at Mission San Jose and go about taking pictures. Mrs. Cone has been taking pictures at the cannery at Haywards.

"It is certain that I had a very remarkable experience," Mrs. Cone says. "If it had not been for my presence of mind I believe I would have been murdered. The fellow had a tight grip on my throat when we both fell over the bicycle and I was released. I did not lose any time struggling with him the first. I saw him fall to the ground. I was very cautious to believe that he was knocked unconscious. The attack was made about 8 o'clock last evening. The Zella place on the Haywards road."

Constable Gallett cannot find any clue to the assailant of the woman.

LIPTON SAYS IT WAS A DRIFTING MATCH.

Shamrock's Owner Is Well Satisfied With Her Performance.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who was visited on board his steam yacht Erin off Sandy Hook today, said that yesterday's contest between the Shamrock and the Columbian was merely a drifting match and indicated absolutely nothing as to the capabilities of either yacht.

"They are," Sir Thomas added, "thoroughly satisfied with the performance of the Shamrock. She has proved she can drift as well as the Columbian."

Lord Lipton, Major-General Fowler-Hunter, Charles J. Gable, C. C. Captain Lascells, Sir Thomas Trenchard, and a number of other Englishmen who came over to see the race, have suddenly determined to return home. They have booked to sail on the Campana tomorrow, as the Countess of Minto.

The Boundary Dispute.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—There has been no progress towards a final agreement upon a boundary line between Alaska and the United States. The boundary even temporarily since the tentative scheme framed by Secretary Hay and Mr. Tower, the British Charge, was sent to London for ratification. Does Your Baking Powder Contain Alum?

Prof. Geo. F. Barker, M.D., University of Penn.: "All the constituents of alum remain (from alum baking powders) in the bread, and the alum itself is reproduced to all intents and purposes when the bread is dissolved by the gastric juice in the process of digestion. I regard the use of alum as highly injurious."

Dr. Alonzo Clark: "A substance (alum) which can damage the stomach should not be tolerated in baking powder."

Prof. W. G. Tucker, New York State Chemist: "I believe it (alum) to be decidedly injurious when used as a constituent of food articles."

Prof. S. W. Johnson, Yale College: "I regard their (alum and soluble alumina salts) introduction into baking powders as most dangerous to health."

In view of such testimony as this, every care must be exercised by the housewife to exclude the over and over condemned cheap, alum baking powders from the food.

Baking powders made from cream of tartar, which is highly refined grape acid, are promotive of health, and more efficient. No other kind should be used in leavening food. Royal Baking Powder is the highest example of a pure cream of tartar powder.

GIRARD WILL CALL MEETING. Wants the Views of Citizens of Second Ward.

A secret meeting of the Council was to have been held Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing the proposed bond issue, but was deferred because it was ascertained that the Council would not be a quorum of the members in attendance. Some other city officials had also been invited to be present.

It is understood that a similar meeting will be called for some night next week, but it is hinted that an invitation to attend will be issued only to members of the Council.

One of the phases of the question to be discussed will be the attention that should be paid to the recommendations on the subject of the Associated Improvement Club. Some members of the Council say that they will pay no attention to the recommendations of the organization in question. They say they were elected to represent the people and that they know what the people want as well as any unofficial organization which is not created by the citizens.

Councilman Girard is one of those who has outspoken views on the subject. "I am not going to be bound by the Improvement Clubs," said Mr. Girard today. "I was elected to represent the people of the Second ward, and I shall be guided by the wishes of the people of that ward. I believe in the referendum. I shall appeal to the people of that ward direct, and not stand the dictation of men elected by half a dozen people in a club to go to call a meeting of the taxpayers of the Second ward and find out what they want to be done, and then I shall do the best I can to have that done by the Council, but I shall not be controlled by spouters and politicians."

LECTURES FOR THE STARR KING FRATERNITY

The lecture course already announced by the Starr King Fraternity on "The International Relations of the United States Since 1782," will be given by Mr. A. Dunaway of Stanford University, will be held in the lecture room of the First Unitarian church, corner Fourteenth and Castro streets, at 8 o'clock on the Friday evenings of October 20th, November 3d and 10th. The opening is one week later than was announced. The course is made especially to accommodate teachers, the opening night as originally planned falling in vacation week.

In selecting the historical course, the fraternity management acted partly with an eye to the timeliness of the subject, partly with the fact in mind that American history in its broader aspects and bearings is too much neglected among us. It is commonly regarded as too new to be interesting, a regard that is passing away, however, as we approach the end of the century. Our nation is awakening to a sense of its destiny, and history that destiny may be realized, it should, in a measure, be studied in the light of its origins.

The course, as outlined, has great dramatic unity; it will consist of three lectures: 1. Spanish Colonial Empire as a Hindrance to American Colonial Expansion, 1782-1819. 2. Sympathy of the United States with Latin-American Independence, 1819-1898. 3. The American of Cuba in Diplomacy and in War.

This scheme covers the story of American dominion in progressive steps, and is a study of profound national interest, enriched by incidents giving vitality to the narrative. It includes consideration of the disputes over the boundaries of West Florida, the acquisition of Louisiana, the encroachments upon the territory of the United States, the history of filibustering, the annexation of the Monroe doctrine, the long revolutions in Cuba and our own attitude thereto.

Since announcing the above course, the committee has met with much inquiry as to the pro- or anti-imperialistic nature of the course. The committee's answer is historical, not prophetic, and the course touches upon matters of international expansion only incidentally. The speaker is no political apostle, and he starts out with no political bias; he is a live student, in touch with the facts of the facts of history; it is an object lesson rather than an argument.

Professor Dunaway has not been heard in Oakland as yet, but his addresses have won much favorable comment in San Jose. San Jose and Berkeley, where he has spoken before teachers' institutes and other lecture associations. His treatment is vital and interesting, and to attract large numbers of students to his lectures, the committee has decided to give a favor which the public will not be slow to acknowledge. The committee understands the value of the service. Course tickets may be had by application to members of the fraternity.

Veteran Is Lost.

The neighborhood of West Berkeley is alarmed over the unaccountable disappearance of a veteran of the Civil War. He was on Third street, between Page and Jones streets. He was last seen there on Tuesday morning. The disappearance was observed by members of the household and vicinity. Kaufmann was one of Berkeley's oldest citizens, and something of a local hero. He was a member of the 10th California Infantry, and was wounded in the head during the Civil War, the location of that injury has given him a permanent disability. He has wandered away, partially demented, and may even have made away with himself. His disappearance is a great loss to the community. Dredging the Lake.

This morning Contractor Peterson and Attorney De Solla had an informal conference with Mayor Snow and Commissioners Dow and Olenicht with respect to the proposed specifications for the dredging of Lake Merritt of the mud which yet remains in it.
It was decided that the contractor would take the lake into three sections with reference as to who might have property along the shore line and that the Board of Public Works would then specify what portion of the sections the dredging might be in dispute, should be dredged.

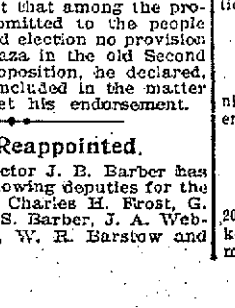

Back From Klondike.

J. D. Smalley and George Smalley, who have been in the Klondike for a year, returned to their home in Hayward today. They have made quite a sum of money.
They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, giving one end and vigor to two systems.

Girard Wants a Plaza.

Councilman Girard this morning called attention to the fact that among the propositions to be submitted to the people in the proposed bond election no provision was made for a plaza in the old Second Ward. Such a proposition, he declared, would have to be included in the matter before it would get his endorsement.

The Oakland School of Domestic Science, or, the Oakland School of Housekeeping, as it is presently, alternative provisional designation, is a lately opened department of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and is the most interesting stage. Mrs. Robert Watt, as its president or chairman, represents it in the Oakland Club and before the public, while her associates are Mrs. Mary Lambert, secretary, and Mrs. Barnard, treasurer.

The School, although but recently organized, and not yet fairly started, has already has one hundred and nine members, with accessions to their numbers coming in daily. All classes of Oakland women, employers and employees alike, are observing this School's inauguration with the deepest attention, since it equally affects the interests of all.

Mrs. Watt, when asked to vouchsafe readers of THE TRIBUNE her theory and methods for making a cook, smilingly replied, "There is a vast deal more than the making of a cook, important as that process and product may be, in the work before our School. In the first place, it is to be understood that this School of Domestic Science, or School of Housekeeping (we have not yet decided between the two names), is not started as a fad or for the gratification of anybody's passing fancy. The aims of its projectors are comprehensive and they are very earnest, and it is hoped to be of service to the homes and the care of the home is requisite to healthful and intelligent living.

"For these ends there will be a cooking department with two distinct branches of instruction. One is the scientific course, designed to train women in the science of cooking, that at its end those who successfully pass its examinations will receive diplomas. These graduates will be entitled to and will receive situations through an employment bureau maintained by the School. The other branch is the normal course, in whose classes women will be fitted as teachers of cooking, and qualified to adopt that science as their profession. By the former department the families of Oakland will know where to find proper talent for the command of their kitchens and will be able to anticipate what they are getting. This fact will undoubtedly prove attractive both to the heads of our homes and to young women ambitious of obtaining an assured livelihood as helpers at homes.

"Still another department of the School's instruction, now in the making, will concern both of these elements of the community that I have mentioned, is that to train housekeepers. In these classes the members will be instructed in all the necessary work of the home, including cooking, the care of parlor, dining-room and bed-room; laundry work or washing, starching and ironing. In this course there will be lessons in marketing. Each class, conducted by its teacher, will be aided by a large market, where a butcher engaged beforehand, with assistants, will be in attendance to practically illustrate the various cuts of the different varieties of meats.

HOW TO SEW.

"There will be sewing classes in the School of Domestic Science, or primary class, where the first principles of this industry will be taught and an advanced class, where ladies will be instructed in the quantities of fabrics and the art of buying intelligently. This latter and will be gained by means of short courses, talks preceding each lesson in sewing.

"Related to this department there will be a dressmaking class, and a millinery class, each conducted by a competent teacher.

"The rate of charges for these several lines of instruction have not yet been fixed. The organization is waiting to ascertain approximately the cost of its operation, including of course the extent of its patronage. The School must and will be conducted on business principles, and to those who cannot contribute to its support, but only to that extent. The prime aim of its projectors is to furnish a class of scientific training in all matters pertaining to the home. This may be said to be a philanthropic aim, inasmuch as it is sought to do good in both directions—to the proprietors of homes, and to those who cannot contribute to its support, but only to that extent. Social Evening Spent by Workers From Three Cities.

The Master Plumbers' Association of Oakland and Alameda played host last evening at a love-feast and banquet. It was a most successful affair, and as also a number of fellow craftsmen from San Francisco and other cities of the State were present.

The underlining was a pronounced success and profuse refections. The food was made by the masters and all of the dishes were prepared with precision. The success which the local organization seemed to have achieved and the manner in which they were entertained.

The early part of the evening was passed in the reading of the minutes of the plumbing business, the prices which prevailed, the cost of materials, the duty of the organization and the advisability of members purchasing from such wholesale

The visitors and members then gathered around the banquet board, and discussed the appealing matter which had been provided by Caterer Moon. A feature of exceeding interest was the presentation of a check for $100 to President Furrey of Alameda. The presentation speech was made by J. Martin, secretary of the association, and the society which had been displayed by Mr. Furrey.

In making the eulogium, Mr. Furrey said that he felt more than repaid for all his efforts in behalf of the society by the evidence of appreciation of its work. He stated also that he was not alone in working for the society because there were many others who were working and could mention who had also labored assiduously in furthering the cause of the organization.

The progress of the banquet, songs were sung by James Pitt, P. J. Brady, J. N. Bonham, W. J. Mitchell, and others, and the presentation of the speeches were made by James Pitt, O. C. Kirk, D. Crowley, M. Campbell, Sam Jones, and others.

The gathering broke up at 11:30 o'clock and every person present felt that he had passed a most agreeable and profitable evening.

The entertainment was arranged by a committee consisting of J. N. Bonham, James Pitt, O. C. Kirk, W. J. Mitchell, and others, of Alameda, and Martin of this city. Those present were: J. H. Armstrong, O. C. Kirk, D. Crowley, M. Campbell, Sam Jones, J. N. Bonham, W. J. Mitchell, James Pitt, P. J. Brady, and others.

He will play at Golden Gate next Sunday, when Santa Cruz meets Oakland in two games at these grounds.

Sampson and Schley Feud Too Fierce for M'Kinley.

No Shamrock Money to Be Had at Any Odds.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley will not re-submit to the Senate the nominations of Rear Admirals Sampson and Schley for advancement in recognition of the victory at Santiago.

The administration is disposed to avoid a renewal of the bitter contest between the friends of the two officers, and may finally decide to let the matter drop. When Rear Admiral Sampson was here he talked with Secretary Long on the matter of re-submitting the nominations. He is naturally gratified at the support received from the administration, but does not want to embarrass the President or Secretary. Rear Admiral Schley has many friends who will support his claims for recognition, and some of them may propose a bill creating the grade of Vice Admiral, in the hope that the President will appoint him to the position.

Because of the South African situation it is planned to get the Chicago ready for sea as soon as possible, and the work of repairing that vessel will be expedited. It is stated that the selection of the cruiser Brooklyn as flagship of the Asiatic squadron was specially recommended by Admiral Dewey. Admiral Schley wanted his old flagship for the South Atlantic station, and the vessel might have been sent, but for Admiral Dewey's suggestion. At the request of Captain P. H. Cooper he has been detached from the command of the Brooklyn. His successor will be announced in a few days.

William Moskiman, who guards the left garden for the Oakland Baseball Club, is probably the youngest player in the league. LONDON PRESS ON YACHT RACE. BIG FLEET FOR ADMIRAL WATSON.

Rejoice in the Spirit of Fraternity Will Be Sent to the Philippines.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Oct. 6.—Few of the morning papers print editorials on the yacht race, and those published are mostly repetitions of the comments of the first race, with deeper expressions of disappointment and a shade greater confidence in the Shamrock's ability to win the cup.

The Daily News expresses the opinion that the fate of the cup will be decided by the odd event.

The Daily Chronicle and the Daily Mail advocate the abolition of the time limit, declaring that otherwise the present generation may not live to see the result of the contest. The Chronicle suggests that the first yacht to cross the line, say before sundown, be declared the winner.

The Daily Mail again refers to the regular manner in which Sir Thomas Lipton and the others of his party are entertained, and says: "We are convinced that it is no more impulsive of the moment, but a clear sign that the Anglo-American alliance is no empty phrase."

Want a Ball Game.

The base ball nine of city officials who so crushingly defeated the county officials last week ago, are anxious to meet the base ball players of the Nite Club in a match game.

It will be remembered that the Nite Club team was defeated by the Belknap Club team with a very close score, which fact proves them to be players of no mean ability. The coming together of the first named clubs should result in a very interesting game.

Wheelmen Will Not Race.

SPANIARD LAUDS DEWEY. SNOW'S REPLY TO ALAMEDA.

A Warm Tribute From the New Spanish Minister.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. BOSTON, Oct. 6.—The Spanish Minister, Duque de Arce, who has just left his house at Manchester, said with regard to the reception being given Admiral Dewey:

"It does not surprise me in the least. Admiral Dewey is a brave and noble man, and for the extraordinary service he has rendered his country no honor that can be shown him in return is too great. It has aroused the admiration of the whole world by the gallantry of his conduct and he would be a small man indeed who could not recognize his merit and give free expression to his admiration for Dewey's valor."

The Minister was emphatic in expressing the opinion that the very best of feeling existed between the United States and Spain.

"There are absolutely no differences between the countries on any point," he said. "Certainly it is the hope of all true patriots that the union should exist, and as for myself, as the official representative of the Queen Regent, it is the ambition of my life to bring about the very utmost of good feeling and good will."

PLAY SCHEDULED FOR MACDONOUGH.

The attraction at the Macdonough Theatre tomorrow evening will be the much-heralded "Poppy Turvy," which has a record for runs inasmuch as it played in Paris for two years, 200 times at the Comedy Theatre, London, and 12 times at the Herald Square Theatre, New York. The original production will be brought here intact, and the cast includes Eddie Fox, also an entire forty voices. The sumptuous production from the Herald Square Theatre is a feature. The story line of the play follows: Paul Blanchard and Cedric Drenne have fallen in love with each other. The girl's father, a crusty old fellow, made up his mind his daughter have a husband and he has chosen Count Zardoff. Strange to say, the Drennes have never seen the Count and for reasons he will take too long to explain, a first meeting is arranged to take place at the White Horse Inn, a small hostelry in a village close to Paris. Cedric has no liking for a match arranged under such conditions, more especially as she has given her heart to Paul, who determines to prevent the match. In this he is aided by some friends, a band of strolling players and the device of changing the sign of the White Horse Inn to another house that looks exactly like it. After a long lot of complications, cross-purposes and blunders, during the unraveling of which things are hurried along, causing continual laughter, Drenne sends the Italian aristocrat about his business and places the hand of his daughter in that of Paul, her lover. The main feature of humor during all this entanglement is supplied by Eddie Fox, who assumes the disguise of the Count before the real count appears, by which time the latter's reputation has been pretty well sullied.

DYNAMITE TORPEDOES AT THE Y. M. I.

With reference to the finding of alleged stocks of dynamite in the drawer of a desk in the hall recently used by the Y. M. I. on Broadway near Eleventh street, Judge Green of the police force, who whose case the find was given, says that the explosives were what is known as "Dewey Dynamite Torpedoes." He granted one of the suspicious articles and found that it contained three small pebbles, which could not have done other than harm if they were to strike a person. On the morning after the find Captain Peterson exploded two of the torpedoes in front of the City Hall, and the detonation aroused people who were sleeping in buildings for blocks around.
